Funeral of E. C. Spofford.

The funeral of the late Edward Coggeshall Spofford will take place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his home in the West End. The interment will be made in Arlington National Cemetery.

CAPT. TONCRAV'S FUNERAL TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Funeral services over the remains of Capt. A. R. P. Toncraiv, Union veteran and Pension Bureau clerk, who dropped dead in front of the St. James Hotel Friday night, will be held at his late home, 261 N. street northwest, tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Representatives of the veteran organizations with which he was affiliated will be present, and the interment will be in Arlington Cemetery.

GREAT CROWDS COMING TO ATTEND ENCAMPMENT

Spanish War Veterans Will Be Here From Entire Country. Committee Already Has Indications of Immense Success In October.

The program for the coming national encampment of the Spanish War Veterans, to be held in Washington during the week of October 8, was practically agreed on at the meeting of the national encampment committee held last night at the Regent Hotel. The officers of the committee present were Chairman Major Fred S. Holmgren, Treasurer Capt. Lee M. Lipscomb, and Secretary Capt. J. Walter Mitchell. L. N. Dolph, chairman of the committee on hotel accommodations, reported that he had received hundreds of letters of inquiry about hotel rates, boarding house rates, and rooms, thus indicating that it will be a record-breaking encampment. He has headquarters at 1324 Corcoran street northwest, where he will be pleased to hear from hotel managers and boarding house keepers on the subject of terms to be offered the veterans and visitors who are coming to attend the encampment.

Camps From Many States.

It was announced that camps are coming in bodies from New York, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Missouri, Virginia, and other States, and that hundreds of Union Veterans will be here to attend this meeting of the Spanish War Veterans.

It was decided last night to give a handsome souvenir badge free to all the delegates. The design of the badge will be agreed on at the next meeting of the committee. The badge may have a raised profile of President Roosevelt, who is an active member of the Spanish War Veterans.

This much of the program was agreed on as to the days: Monday afternoon, October 8, addresses, including one probably by President Roosevelt; Monday night, a smoker; Tuesday afternoon, the big parade or grand review of all the military organizations attending the encampment; Saturday afternoon, election of officers, and at night a big banquet will mark the close of the week.

Reception and Excursions.

Other features of the program agreed to, but not set as to days and time, include a reception by the ladies' auxiliary, excursions to surrounding battlefields, a visit to Fort Myer, where a Cosack drill will take place, trolley rides to Arlington and Mt. Vernon, and ceremonies around the monument erected to the Spanish war veterans by the Colonial Dames at Arlington. The dates for these features of the encampment will be announced later.

The meeting last night was well attended and the members were enthusiastic, for every indication points to a most successful encampment.

DEAD MEN WHO TELL TALES TO COUNTLESS

Leader of Paris Society Publishes Strange Book of Her Talks With Spirits.

PARIS, Aug. 18.—Parisian society has been surprised to discover that a book, entitled "Tales and Interviews," published under the name of Charles Orino, is really by the famous society leader, Comtesse Pillet-Will.

The volume, which deals with spiritualism, of which the comtesse is a firm believer, gives interviews which the comtesse has had with dead celebrities. Pere Didon, Zola, Renan, Maupassant, and other famous personages have communicated in spirit with the comtesse, who has jotted down their impressions of current affairs.

The spirit of Gambetta has said to the comtesse that he does not think much of Monsieur Delcasse, ex-minister of foreign affairs. Balzac says that France is losing its moral balance; that the rich are essentially guilty, for they seek innumerable forbidden pleasures, and are broken and aged in their youth.

Alexander Dumas said that Duse played "La Dame aux Camellias" as he had not at all intended that it should be played. Says he: "She has made my Marguerite a great lady with a touch of the courtesan in her, whereas I created her to be a courtesan with a touch of the great lady."

A very great personage who refuses to permit himself to be named has thus described the other world of the comtesse: "It is divided into twenty-five spheres, which are more or less in the vicinity of this. Some are quite habitable, like this world. When we die our souls move on to the next sphere, but we are not obliged to stay there. We can come back to earth if we choose."

M. CLEMENCEAU EATS A PRISONER'S BREAD

PARIS, Aug. 18.—M. Clemenceau, minister of the interior, does not believe in leaving everything to his subordinates and personally inspects every department of the government.

Recently he has been making surprise visits to the prisons. Having heard that the female prisoners at St. Lazare had complained of the poor quality of the bread furnished them, the prime minister one day appeared at the prison at meal time and asked for a piece of the bread which was being served out to the prisoners.

He tasted it and declared it to be so dry and hard as not to be fit for human food. He then ordered his secretary to take samples of the flour of which the bread is made, and has sent them to the municipal laboratory for analysis.

MUNICIPAL BUILDING NOT ON BLACKLIST

Building Trades Make Clear Attitude in Plumbers' Strike.

At a meeting of the representatives of all of the building trades in the District of Columbia in the Corcoran building last night the statement published in a Washington paper that the Municipal building was unfair and on the blacklist was pronounced to be without foundation, as was the statement that many buildings for which the plumbing contract had been let to employers of non-union plumbers were on the "unfair list."

The members attending the meeting said that the building trades men would not quit work on such buildings unless the non-union plumbers appeared on the scene and should make an attempt to go to work, when all members of the building trades employed on the building would immediately stop and not return to work until a union plumber should come to take the place of the non-union plumber, whose presence had caused the walkout.

It was stated at the meeting that there were not more than 125 members of the building trades affected by the sympathetic strike. On every building where the men have stopped work they will not resume their places until union plumbers are employed. It is this phase of the situation that worries the master builders and is increasing the pressure on the master plumbers to agree to arbitration as the only means to settle the question at issue between the master plumbers and journeymen plumbers.

At last night's meeting the Stone Cutters' Association, Stone Masons, B. M. L. U. Painters, and Elevator Constructors allied themselves with the cause. This now makes every building trade in the fight for the plumbers and against the open shop.

GIRL LED REBELLION AND IS LED TO PRISON

HAMBURG, Aug. 18.—A domestic servant who headed political riots in Hamburg is undergoing a mild martyrdom in jail.

The girl, Elizabeth Rolph, twenty-five years old, sprang into fame by making a stirring address to a meeting of 5,000 workmen in protest against a proposed new franchise law which would deprive thousands of the poorer electors of their votes. Although only a young servant, earning $5 a month, Elizabeth was elected president of a committee to organize a rebellion, which was the direct result of her eloquence.

In the serious riots which followed Elizabeth Rolph was a bold and fearless commander. She led the mob in an attack on the rich quarter of the city. Stores full of valuables were sacked and looted under her direction.

Before the riots were quelled there was severe fighting with the troops and police, in which the young Amazon was wounded and captured. She has now been sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

SHE ACCUSES SECOND BROTHER-IN-LAW NOW

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Mabel Schupert, of 36 West Fifty-third street, was in the Yorkville police court to prosecute her brother-in-law, Louis Schupert, on charge of felonious assault.

Mrs. Schupert and her husband, Herman, did not agree and he started for Boston on August 4. His wife and her father met him on the train and tried to drag him out.

He was accompanied by his brothers, Louis and William. While William engaged the father, Mrs. Schupert said, Louis hit her with a suit case. In the fight in the Grand Central Station the husband, Herman, dodged and got away on the train.

The wife caused the arrest of the two brothers, and William was held several days ago for trial in bonds of $500. Mrs. Schupert says the blow Louis gave her with the suit case made her so ill she could not prosecute until now.

LIVE WITHIN YOUR MEANS.

The quiet, honest citizen who lives well within his income, having what he needs in the way of comfortable living, adequate feeding, tasteful dressing, with some relaxation and pleasures, all in such proportion as his means justify, stands apart from his neighbor who earns no more but who makes a deal of show with what he has and what he does and doubts his own ability to manage. But the difference is not so much apparently in ability to make a given sum of money go its fullest length as of willingness to incur debt and forget it.—New Bedford Standard.
